TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME OCTOBER 11, 2015

In the Gospel reading for the Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Jesus warns against the false sense of security often derived from wealth and an abundance of possessions. This was a countercultural message as relevant in the ancient world as it is today in the modern world.

Commentators often remark that the Gospel of Mark presents a “low Christology”; that is, Mark tends to emphasize the human side of Jesus. Today’s reading offers a good example. The brief exchange between Jesus and the rich man begins with a curious reaction by Jesus to the rich man referring to him as “good.” Jesus repudiates the rich man for calling him “good”: “No one is good but God alone.” Mark presents Jesus distancing himself from the majesty of God. (Another example of Mark’s low Christology was seen earlier in the storyline when Mark reports on Jesus’ rejection at Nazareth, commenting that because of the Nazarenes’ lack of faith, Jesus “was not able to perform any mighty deeds there,” 6:5.)

In today’s Gospel reading, the rich man fully anticipates an affirmation from Jesus that by living his life as a law-abiding Jew, he would “inherit eternal life.” The man “went away sad” when Jesus pushed him to take one further step: “Go, sell what you have... then come, follow me.” The disciples, too, were “amazed” and “exceedingly astonished” at Jesus’ words, “How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God.” In antiquity, people commonly associated wealth and possessions as a sign and symbol of God’s blessings. Befuddled, the disciples ask Jesus, “Then who can be saved?” Jesus’ answer puts inheritance of eternal life outside the realm of possibility for humans alone; eternal life is a gift that only God grants: “For human beings it is impossible, but not for God.”

The first reading comes from the Book of Wisdom. This text is actually a compilation of wisdom teachings written about a hundred years before the birth of Christ. Today’s reflection on the virtues of prudence and wisdom articulates well the disposition that Jesus encouraged his disciples and the rich man to adopt. The divine gift of prudence and wisdom is more precious than power, wealth, health, and beauty. According to the Jewish sage, the exercise of wisdom and prudence never sleeps, helps make sense of all good things, and is the source of true wealth.

Once again, the second reading is taken from the Letter to the Hebrews. One of the valuable insights that Hebrews offers contemporary Christians is a glimpse into how early Christians defined themselves in relation to other religions, including Judaism. The author of Hebrews viewed Christianity as the continuation and fulfillment of the promises God made to Israel. Through the suffering death, resurrection, and ascension of Jesus into heaven, God established a “new” covenant, making the first covenant with Israel, “obsolete” (Heb 8:13). The author of Hebrews is not devaluing Israel’s covenantal history; he is affirming the fulfillment of God’s promise made to Israel in his Son, Jesus. As Hebrews indicates in today’s reading, “the word of God is living and effective.” In Jesus’ message to the rich man and the disciples, we see God’s word at work.

FORMATION

BOOK DRIVE TO BENEFIT JAIL MINISTRY AND OUTREACH

The Education Commission is again sponsoring a Book Drive to benefit the children of those incarcerated in our correctional facilities as well as the prisoners themselves.

All new books for toddlers to 18 years of age are greatly welcomed and distributed to children who have a parent in jail. These books are distributed to the children of the incarcerated at Christmas.

Jail Ministry and Outreach would welcome copies of The Life Recovery Bible. These bibles are given to the many people who pass through their doors and is the most popular book in the Chaplin's office. Any book that helps in working through grief and anger are particularly beneficial. Care Notes from Abby Press, comic books and magazines that are in good condition are also welcome as well as books on spirituality, theology and world religions. Please note that books staying at the jail need to be soft covered.

If you wish to support this Work of Mercy in a way other than books they can use regular bath size bars of soap in wrappers and stamps! Sr. Peggy, of Jail Ministry and Outreach, tells us that they "also need stamps for Christmas cards. We have had several thousand cards distributed but need the forever stamps."

First and foremost is our outreach to the children! Please consider picking up a book or two and placing your donation in the plastic bin located in the church vestibule or bringing your donation directly to the Education Office before November 15th.

If you have any questions, please contact Mary Taylor at 248-476-7677, ext. 201 or taylor.mary04@yahoo.com.

WORSHIP

Tim's Tidbits

This weekend, at all the Liturgies, we celebrate the Anointing of the Sick. This anointing is meant to give strength to those in need, no matter the ailment. "This sacrament gives the grace of the Holy Spirit to those who are sick: by this grace the whole person is helped and saved, sustained by trust in God..." (Pastoral Care of the Sick, General Instruction, article 6)

We are working on enriching our outreach to the homebound. This is an important ministry to those who cannot attend Mass for one reason or another. There is a need for "Ministers of Care" to take communion to the homebound, either in their home or a care facility. Most likely it would be done on a Sunday, after Mass. If you are interested in this ministry, please let me know by calling or emailing me. Training and on-going formation will be provided and a meeting will be set up in the near future. If you do this already, please let me know, as well.

"Ministry of care is one of the oldest ministries in the church. It was a ministry open to all the baptized that gradually, through the ages, became a ministry for priests and religious, especially those who established and served in hospitals. The renewal of this ministry among all who are baptized is one of the many good works to come from Vatican II." (Handbook for Ministers of Care)

Your help is needed with the Estate Sale! Please call me at 248-476-7677 Ext 202 or email me at timwestfall.sgp@gmail.com if you can assist with the sale for a few hours next weekend. This would require staffing a room during the sale. Thank you for your time and consideration.

St. Alexander Church Estate Sale will be held October 16 through October 18. Volunteers are needed. If you can volunteer your time please call Tim Westfall at 248-476-7677 ext. 202.

Pope John Paul II emphasized the importance of young people in spreading the gospel throughout the world and being the future of the Church. The call to be witnesses to Christ is not just for adults; It begins with baptism, grows with confirmation, and is constantly nourished by prayer, the Eucharist, Bible reading and sound Catholic teaching. Alan Schreck, PH.D.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS NEWS

You can help welcome new members into our Order Monday evening when we will be hosting a first degree ceremony in the Social Hall. It also is an opportunity for you to reinforce your understanding of the first principle of Knighthood. Candidate registration is at 7:15 PM; the ceremony starts at 7:30 PM. The ceremony is a follow up to last month's recruiting drive. A fellowship time will follow the ceremony.

It appears we will have three walkers in the Oct. 17 Walk for the Poor on Belle Ile. Kathy Gariepy, wife of Frank, has been a walker for the last several years. However, she is still recuperating from August knee surgery. So Frank has volunteered to replace her, joining Bob Kuhr and Matt Barrett in the fund raiser for the St. Vincent de Paul Society. Any one of them will welcome a pledge for a most worthy cause.

The Oct. 17 membership meeting will have an Oktoberfest theme but you won't need to wear lederhosen,; just bring an appetite.. Advocate Jerome Williams and crew will be dishing up brats and other traditional German fare following the business portion of the meeting. At that meeting, volunteers will be sought to help with the annual Trunk 'N' Treat event Saturday, Oct. 24. The Knights cook chili and hot dogs for the kids and their moms and dads. It is a fun event, especially since the cooking phase was moved inside last year. A warm, well-lit kitchen beats a cold, damp and dark parking lot every time. Larry Swanson (248-474-3902) or Tom McPhail (248-875-1185) to join the fun. Keep Informed of Your Council's Activities; Read the Knights Corner in The Voice!
