EASTER SUNDAY THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

March 27, 2016

Ours is a changing world. In fact, our world is changing more rapidly than ever before. We will completely miss the meaning of Easter if we think of it as happening two thousand years ago. The event and the holy day have no meaning unless we are experiencing God's power to bring life out of death in the here-and-now as well as in the here-after.

First reading – Acts 10:34a, 37-43

Of course Jesus was raised from the dead! How could God not see to the resurrection of his Incarnate Son? His life was filled with love, sacrifice, and good works. Such a life would have no meaning if it simply ended in death. God raised Jesus from the dead as a pledge that good will always ultimately triumph over evil.

Second reading – Colossians 3:1-4

There is a marvelous message in these words from Paul to the Colossians. He tells us that we have already died and our lives have already been raised in Christ. In other words, God's resurrecting power brings life out of death here and now, as well as in the past and in the future.

Gospel – Luke 24:1-12

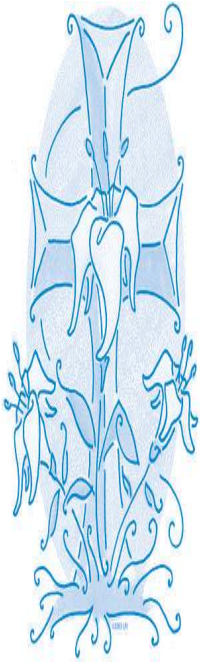

The message of the angels to the women on that first Easter morning is amazing. It is like a shaft of light suddenly appearing in a darkened room. People of faith will not be found among the dead. The cemetery is not where our loved ones have gone. The faithful already share in the eternal life of the resurrected Christ.

After Jesus' death his followers experienced just such hopelessness. They were not merely grieved, they were devastated. Their hopes vanished into thin air. Their faith in the future evaporated. We cannot imagine the impact the death of Jesus had on his followers. Not only were they common people who lived in relatively primitive times, but they had little or no social status prior to meeting Jesus. Furthermore, they lived in a world where death was commonplace, where life expectancy was two-thirds of what it is today. So primitive were their conditions that they could not have understood, much less imagined, the world of medicine and health that we enjoy today. As recently as the 17th century Thomas Hobbes could characterize life as "solitary, poor, nasty, brutish, and short." The disciples had entrusted everything to Jesus, including their physical and spiritual destinies.

To understand the depth of their despair, we must recall the height of their earlier expectations. These people were convinced that Jesus was the long-awaited Messiah. From the day he first appeared in Galilee, word had spread that he was the one who would deliver Israel. Everywhere he went, crowds gathered just to hear him, to experience his strength, and to witness his miraculous power. Then the tide turned against him. Almost before they knew what was happening, he was nailed to a cross, just like the two thieves who were crucified on either side of him. Perhaps they expected some miraculous intervention. But all Jesus did was hang there, and bleed, and suffer, and die. His followers were devastated. At the very point where they had come to expect so much, suddenly it was all over. Jesus was dead. For his followers there appeared to be nothing left, nothing to anticipate, nothing to live for. The disciples were suddenly living on the wrong side of Easter, where death rules everything, and where so many people live today.

Easter Blessings! Fr. Festus Ejimadu

KNIGHTS CORNER

Parish Picnic June 5, Corn Toss Tourney Needs Manager

Council member needed to become event manager for the corn toss tournament that is being planned as part of the parish picnic. The picnic is schedule for Sunday, June 5. Early discussions about the corn toss tournament focused on it being a team event open to men of the parish. More details from Program Director Tom McPhail (248-875-1185).

Casino bus trip for June 8, 2016 is almost sold out. If you would like to go, contact Rich Smith at 248-747-6817.

Anyone interested in going to a Tiger game this year call Rich Smith PGK at 248-747-6817. We have been thinking of going in smaller groups and also having dinner at one of the downtown restaurants. Some of the restaurants will shuttle us to and from the game to our car.

With spring just arriving, the new, lightweight nylon Council jacket is the perfect fit at $25. It has a light fleece lining to ward off those night chills and a roomy inside pocket, perfect for your phone or wallet. See PGK Bruce Roberts to purchase yours. Also, hats are still available from Bruce.

A major degree night is planned for Monday, May 9 at nearby Our Lady of Sorrows, home of the St. Francis Council. Our Council has 18 members who lack their second and third degrees, meaning that they have not reached full knighthood. There is no cost other than a couple hours of your time while you learn more about our order and what it means to be a Knight of Columbus. Membership Director Shatomi Kerbawy will arrange your participation. Call him at 248-434-7561.

Next month is April, a time when the Council will be nominating officers who will lead us in the 2016-17 fraternal year. Under a schedule adopted last year, nominations will open at the April 19 membership meeting and the elections held at the May 17 meeting. To be eligible, you must be in good standing and hold a third degree. Candidates can nominate themselves or have a fellow member do it. All terms, except that of the single trustee position, are for one year starting July 1.
