SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

MAY 1, 2016

Across the centuries we have prayed for “peace on earth.” It seems to come only periodically however, and then only in unexpected places. But we long for peace as fervently as our earliest forbearers did. Although peace seems unlikely to come any time soon, we can value peace, pray for peace, and work for peace in all our relationships and throughout our lives with others.

First reading – Acts 15:1-2, 22-29

The church at Antioch was deeply divided over whether Gentile converts were required to observe the ceremonial laws of Judaism. But wise leaders in the mother church in Jerusalem discussed the matter calmly and reached a prudent compromise. It is amazing what can happen when cooler heads prevail in crisis situations.

Second reading – Revelation 21:10-14, 22-23

The apostle John could have been bitter, having been exiled by the Romans to spend the last years of his life on the lonely isle of Patmos. He was cut off from friends and family in that wretched place. But these were peaceful years because God gave John a foretaste of the heavenly glory that awaited him as a follower of Jesus Christ.

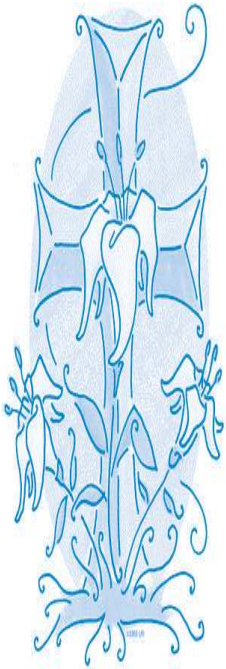

Gospel – John 14:23-29

Jesus bestowed the gift of peace on his followers on the eve of his death. He did not promise them an easy time of it. They would suffer sorrow and persecution for his sake. But Jesus did promise them that they would attain an inward contentment and peace that nothing in the world could shake.

When many people hear the word “peace” the first thing they think of is war. This is understandable. Our world is never free from war. Somewhere it is, and has always been, neighbor against neighbor, tribe against tribe, nation against nation. Prayers for peace are always appropriate. In the beginning it was Cain against Abel, the first two human siblings at war with one another. Throughout history it has been nation against nation, invariably driven by the crudest, if not darkest, of human aspirations. In the Middle East it appears that the Arabs and the Jews are always pursuing a peace process. War, of some kind or another, is always within sight, and too often there are more wars than we can keep track of. We were warned. Jesus said there would be “wars and rumors of wars,” that “nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom ... and famines and earthquakes in various places.” (Mt 24:7-8)

It is easy to become cynical about the possibilities of real peace in this world. Given the long history of humankind’s warfare, and what we know of our sinful nature, it seems unlikely that true world peace is on the horizon. Samuel Johnson, in Boswell’s Life, claimed: “It is mutual cowardice that keeps us in peace.” This is at least partially true. Still, as people of faith, we must continue to both work and pray for the end of warfare and for peace on earth. Have a blessed week! Fr. Festus

WEDNESDAY EVENING AT 7:00 PM

(MAY 4 IS THE LAST EVENING OF THIS STUDY)

Father David Santoro, O.P., Chaplain at the Blessed Sacrament Monastery in Farmington Hills will lead the study using the Ignatius Bible Study Guide. The study will continue the Gospel of Matthew.

All are Welcome to this Inter-Parish Scripture Study.

Bring your Bible and/or Ignatius Study guides. No need to register.

Tim's Tidbits

Christ has Risen! Indeed, He has Risen!

Below you will see two articles about Pentecost. The reading from Acts, can be done with different languages. If you can read or speak another language, please let me know. Either by calling me at 248-476-7677 x 202 or emailing at timwestfall.sgp@gmail.com. Also, wear Red to Church on Pentecost, and bring along a red geranium that day. They will be planted on the campus to beatify our parish grounds.

Our Synod Dialogue Sessions have taken off. There will be one more on Saturday, May 14 at 9:00 AM. Synods can change Archdiocesan policy and how it does its business. They do not happen often. In fact, in the Archdiocese, we have only had 10 synods since 1833, the last being in 1969. It's important to receive your input, if you can not make it to one of the sessions we have at St. Gerald's, there are other neighboring parishes that are having sessions. Please go to aod.org/synod16 and click on the "Parish Dialogue Sessions" link. This will provide you with information about the sessions being held locally. Prayerfully in this Easter Season!

PARLEZ VOUS FRANCAIS?

On Sunday, May 15th, the Solemnity of Pentecost will be upon us. We, as members of the Church, will celebrate the gift of the Spirit to all people on Pentecost Sunday, the Birthday of the Church. We will be proclaiming the Scriptures in various languages; the first reading in particular. If you can read or speak in another language, and wish to participate in the reading please contact Tim Westfall at 248-476-7677 x 202. Maybe you would like to proclaim the Scriptures in your native language or a learned language. We will have copies of the readings available. Just let us know of your interest. If interested, please call or email. Thank you.

RED GERANIUMS FOR PENTECOST

On Pentecost Sunday, which is May 15th this year, the church celebrates the coming of the Holy Spirit with the symbolic color of red. We invite you to bring a potted red geranium to decorate our sanctuary with on Pentecost Sunday. Just bring a potted red geranium and place it in the sanctuary. The following week, the red geraniums will be planted on the parish grounds to beautify our campus all season long. Thank you.

Have you considered putting St. Gerald Church in your Will? Please call Fr. Festus at 248-477-7470. He would be happy to discuss this with you.

BABY BOTTLE DRIVE

The Knights of Columbus is having a baby bottle drive for Mother and Unborn Baby Care. We will be handing out baby bottles on Mothers' day and collecting them on Fathers' day. The Right To Life movement is a big part of being a Knight and our religion. So please pick up a baby bottle and fill with your change, dollars or a check. Make checks payable to Mother and Unborn Baby Care. Thank You. God be with you and your family.

Archbishop Vigneron encourages everyone, of any age, to participate in SYNOD 2016.

Join us here at St. Gerald, on Saturday, May 14th at 9:00 AM to give your input at a dialogue session with other parish members and our community.

Hospitality and refreshments will be available.

Other area churches are also offering dates that may suit your schedule; visit AOD.org for more details.

KNIGHTS CORNER

Membership Drive and Reception for Prospects Take Center Stage This Week

Fred Gerometta, one of the Council's most active members, heads up a full lineup of candidates in our annual election at the May 17 membership meeting. Now the Deputy Grand Knight, Gerometta was nominated for Grand Knight for a one year term beginning July 1.

Others nominated were current Chancellor Dave Bednarski for Deputy Grand Knight, Frank Gariepy for Chancellor, Roger Stacey for Recorder, Larry Swanson for Treasurer, Jerome Williams for Advocate, PGK Rich Smith for Warden, Michael Rometty and Jack Davis for Guards and Bill Croitori for Trustee. Nominations remain open. They will close during the May 17 meeting when voting will take place.

At this Sunday's masses, the Council is making a pitch for new members. Prospects and their families are being invited to a reception in the Social Hall at 7:30 PM Thursday, May 5. You and your spouse can support this effort by attending and welcoming the prospects. Light refreshments will be served.

Brothers who lack the third degree of our Order can remedy the situation by attending a degree ceremony Monday, May 9 at nearby Our Lady of Sorrows church. Contact Membership Director Shatomi Kerbawy at 248-434-7561 so he can reserve a spot and find a member to escort you. Registration is at 6 PM.

Our Council again will be supporting an area pregnancy center, Mother and Unborn Baby Care in Southfield, with a baby bottle drive from Mothers' Day, May 8, through Fathers' Day, June 19. If you can help hand out bottles after the May 7-8 weekend masses, call PGK Bruce Roberts at 248-756-9257.

A few painters are sought May 13-14 to help refurbish an outdoor breezeway at the Blessed Sacrament Monastery, located at 13 Mile Road and Northwestern Hwy. Last week's article incorrectly listed a different location. If you can help, contact Frank Gariepy at 248-982-7782.

Thank you to everyone who showed up last Saturday to help clean up the outside of St. Gerald property. The grounds look beautiful. Your help and commitment are very much appreciated!
