THE MOST HOLY TRINITY MAY 22, 2016

The Christian faith is a religion of love to a far greater degree than it is a religion of law. The laws of God are important, but they are a matter of rules and regulations. In a religion of love, God's initiative is an expression of the truest love of all. In fact, God's love is given to us to help us keep the divine laws. God does not withhold love from us until we obey God's laws.

First reading – Proverbs 8:22-31

In this passage from the book of Proverbs wisdom is personified as God's first creation. Before the heavens and the earth were even created, the Creator brought forth wisdom. One thing this means is that God's wisdom, God's truth, must always be the world's greatest good and highest goal.

Second reading – Romans 5:1-5

The Christian faith places a great deal of emphasis on hope. Although we look to the past for guidance, we look to the future for fulfillment. We have not yet seen or heard everything that God has in store for us. There is far more to God's truth than has been revealed to us at any given time.

Gospel – John 16:12-15

Even by the testimony of his enemies, Jesus was a remarkable, matchless teacher. But he did not complete the work of teaching all of God's truth during his lifetime on this earth. Jesus did, however, promise to send his Holy Spirit. The Spirit is present in us and with us to guide us in the discovery of new truth and deeper wisdom.

The word "Trinity" does not appear in the Bible. It comes from the third century, and the classical formulation of the doctrine comes from the fourth century. Throughout the Bible the multifaceted nature of God is revealed. The language of Father, Son and Holy Spirit is found throughout the New Testament. The doctrines of the church are best seen as attempts to express the experiences of the people of faith. The Trinity is a way of expressing and interpreting the Christian experience of God. It was the first Christians' experiences of God, of Jesus, and of the Holy Spirit that made the doctrine of the Trinity necessary.

The primary message of the Trinity is that God can be trusted. The Trinity represents the integrity of God. The three aspects of God are not at odds with each other. What God does is consistent with what God has done and will do! There is no inconsistency in God's actions or manifestations. We can trust God's integrity. The challenge for us is to never stop growing. Learning is a long journey. We will never run out of things to learn. The more we know, the more we don't know. The more we learn, the more we need to learn. The increase of knowledge means the increase of mystery. What if the disciples had stopped learning when Jesus died? For one thing, Simon Peter would have remained an arrogant racist! No human metaphor is adequate to describe the full mystery of God. God is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. God is Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer. God is shepherd, king, priest, wonderful counselor, eternal God, everlasting Father, Prince of Peace, the alpha and the omega, the bright and morning star. But we must keep seeking and growing. The human knowledge of God is inexhaustible. But, finally the most important thing to learn is that God is love.

Have a blessed week! Fr. Festus

CSA MINUTE - MINISTERIAL CERTIFICATION

Youth ministry formation and certification, for those who need help pastoring teenagers, will be held at Sacred Heart Major Seminary from June 7 to 9. This summer program partially fulfills the requirement for the Archdiocese of Detroit's Youth Ministry Certification.

Those called to regular service in the Church, such as catechists, youth ministers, pastoral ministers and full-time lay ecclesial ministers, are required to receive the proper education and formation—and certification. Your gifts to the Catholic Services Appeal help fund programs of formation coordinated through the Ministerial Certification Office, which is part of the archdiocesan Department of Evangelization, Catechesis and Schools.

For information about CSA-funded ministries, programs, and services, please go to www.aod.org.

TIM'S TIDBITS

The Holy Trinity that we celebrate today is a model for our relationships with one another in our church. Gathering in the Holy Spirit at the Father's invitation, let us pray today in Christ that we may learn to emulate the love and joy of the Trinity in all our relationships.

"In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." Christians who use this phrase repeatedly could easily lose sight of the powerful mystery it expresses. Today, Trinity Sunday, the Scriptures call for reflection on this central belief of Christianity: the Trinity. One of the greatest gifts of the Christian faith is the dogma of the triune God: God is three (tri) in one (une). Christians name God as a Trinity of Father, Son, and Spirit, but only in light of Jesus Christ does such language and insight fully emerge." (Sourcebook, 2016)

A thank you to those who participated in the reading of Acts in another language for the celebration of Pentecost goes out to the following:

Deborah Gates Palombo – French
 Agnes Bongero – Polish
 Robert Beiting – Latin
 Rosa Russenberger – French
 Lyda Del Rosario – Tagalog
 Margareth Corkery – Haitian Creole
 John Adibuah – Spanish
 Frank Luscri – Italian
 Christine Greig – Spanish
 Teddy Williams – French
 Adriana Troiani – Italian
 Jim Bergin – Lector
 Diane Blankenship – Lector
 Sue Wardle – Lector
 Nancy Stone – Lector

Next year, let's hope to get more readers of another language. It was an awesome experience that we hope to build upon.

Thank you to those who brought red geraniums to church, as well. They will be planted on the parish grounds to help beautify our campus.

KNIGHTS CORNER

Fred Gerometta Elected Grand Knight; More Workers Sought for June 5 Parish Picnic

Deputy Grand Knight Fred Gerometta was given a promotion at last Tuesday’s membership meeting. He was elected Grand Knight for a one year term beginning July 1. Also elected were Dave Bednarski as Deputy Grand Knight; Fred Gariepy as Chancellor; Roger Stacey as Recorder; Larry Swanson as Treasurer; PGK Rich Smith as Warden; Mike Rometty and John Davis as Guards and Bill Croitori as Trustee. All terms start July 1 and are for one year, except Trustee, which is for three years.

A few more volunteers are needed to handle Knightly duties at the June 5 parish picnic. Again this year, Knights have been asked to staff the grills and the beer keg. In addition, Knights help with setting up tents and tables Saturday morning and help with the tear down. Contact Fred Gerometta at 248-763-3196. He has Sunday’s work broken down into 2 hour shifts so workers still will have time to enjoy the picnic.

Matt Chemielewski, one of our newer members, has agreed to help GK Darren Losey in organizing our first Corn Toss Tournament as part of the picnic. Details on the starting time, eligibility of teams and how to register are expected to be announced soon. It is known that additional helpers will be needed to register teams and to serve as referees.

Congratulations to Jerome Williams, May Knight of the Month, and Bob and Sherry Kuhr, May Family of the Month. Also to GK Darren Losey and Gerryanna and Frank Luscri, Knight and Family of the Month for June, respectively. The Knight and Family of the Year will be selected at the June membership meeting.

If anyone asks, the Baby Bottle Drive is scheduled to end Father’s Day, June 19, and will benefit the Unborn Baby Care Pregnancy Center. Brother Mike O’Dea and Lynn Smith, wife of PGK Rich Smith serve on the center’s Board of Directors.

If you have changed your phone number and/or e-mail recently, give Program Director Tom McPhail a call at 248-875-1185. He sends out most of the e-blasts to the membership. He will pass along any changes to Financial Secretary Bob Kuhr. Sunny skies are expected for the parish picnic; keep cool with an official made-in-the-USA Council cap, See PGK Bruce Roberts to buy for $20. Council shirts and jackets also available.
