SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JULY 17, 2016

The readings for the Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time focus on the issue of hospitality. In antiquity, hospitality toward strangers and guests was a well-established cultural norm.

The first reading is taken from the Book for Genesis and draws from a section of Genesis containing the cycle of stories about Abraham, Genesis 12–25. We first meet Abraham in Genesis 12 when he is seventy-five years old (Gn 12:4). According to Genesis 25, Abraham dies at the age of one hundred seventy-five (Gn 25:7). (Scholars acknowledge that Abraham did not live to be one hundred seventy-five years old. No one in the ancient world—or the modern world—has such age expectancy. It is likely that “years” are being counted differently by the authors of Genesis than how we in the modern Western world count “years.”) In today’s reading, Abraham is ninety-nine years old (Gn 17:24) when he encounters three strangers who approach him near the territory of Mamre. Abraham models the expected behavior of a tribal chieftain as he treats these visitors with honor and warm hospitality. Within the larger narrative context of Genesis 18–19, it becomes clear that the visitors are journeying onto the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to investigate the grave sin being reported in these cities. But their first stop is intended to encounter Abraham and deliver the news of Sarah’s impending birth of her firstborn son, Isaac. Imagine Sarah’s reaction to the news of her son yet-to-be born. Sarah was only ten years younger than Abraham; as an elderly woman, she likely would have found this news unsettling, to say the least!

Hospitality is the focus of the Gospel reading as well. Luke is the only synoptic Gospel writer to preserve the story of Martha and Mary. John also speaks of Martha and Mary (see Jn 11, the raising of their brother Lazarus; Jn 12:1-11). From Luke’s description of the setting for Jesus’ encounter with Martha and Mary, it appears this was to be the first time Jesus meets them. One of the many interesting features of this Lucan story is that Martha, who shows the expected cultural norm of hospitality and service to Jesus as the houseguest, is not supported by Jesus. Mary, “who sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak,” draws Jesus’ praise. Jesus’ support of Mary (who is portrayed by Luke as disciple learning at the feet of the Master) was important to Luke. Throughout his Gospel, Luke shows a concern for women unmatched by the other Evangelists. He often balances men and women (see, for the example, the infancy narrative), shows a special concern for widows (7:11-17; 18:1-8; 20:45-47; 21:1-4), and even highlights a group of women who followed Jesus throughout his Galilean ministry (8:1-3). Given the patriarchal social reality of Luke’s day, presenting Mary learning at the feet of Jesus may have been the closest the author could come to telling his intended audience that Jesus had (or even supported) female disciples.

Once again for the second reading we hear from Paul’s Letter to the Colossians. A familiar Pauline theme is heard in today’s reading: “the mystery hidden from ages and from generations past” revealed to Paul (that is, the Gentiles being grafted into Israel’s salvation history) and given to Paul by “God’s stewardship.”

REMINDER: Following the guidelines of the Archdiocese of Detroit children of the parish are to receive two full years of religious formation before reception of a sacrament.

Together with Catholic Charities and the Archdiocese of Detroit, all parishes are asked to participate in Mercy Day in Action on October 1st. St. Gerald will join together with St. Fabian, Our Lady of Sorrows and St. Andrew Kim to go out into the community on this day and do mercy acts.

Just an example of a couple projects we have decided on as a group are; to clean up historical cemeteries in the Farmington and Farmington Hills area and at Our Lady of Sorrows we will be assembling blessing bags for the homeless. These are just two examples. We have a few other projects planned as well.

Mercy Day in Action will start at Our Lady of Sorrows on October 1st at approximately 8:30 AM and conclude back at Our Lady of Sorrows at 1:00 PM for lunch and closing prayer. I know this will be an amazing day as we go out into the community and do God's work.

Please email me if this is something you would be interested in at desjarlais.candy@gmail.com or call me at 248-476-7677, ext. 204. Thank you, Candy Desjarlais, Christian Service Coordinator

KNIGHTS CORNER

Membership Meeting is Tuesday; Call Ellen Stacey or Arlene McPhail with Dish for Aug. 6 Pot Luck

Grand Knight Fred Gerometta began his new term by appointing some helpers at the July 5 Officer’s Meeting. He continued the terms of Membership Director Shatomi Kerbawy and Program Director Tom McPhail. Brother Kerbawy also was named Youth Director and McPhail was given added duties as Public Relations Director. Past Grand Knight Patrick Rogers and Advocate Jerome Williams were assigned as liaison with the Parish Council. PGK Bruce Roberts was appointed Council Officer, the person who is the custodian of Council property. The Council also will be looking for a new Treasurer. Larry Swanson who was elected to the post announced he and wife Beryl had made a sudden decision to move to a new house out of the parish. Rich Rosowski whom Swanson was to replace is being asked to fill in until a replacement is found. Congratulations to Matt Chmielewski our Knight of the Month for July and to Dennis and Sharon Weberlein our Family of the Month for July.

A big thanks to Ellen Stacey and Arlene McPhail. They have agreed to coordinate the menu for the August 6 Pot Luck dinner. If you and your family are planning to attend call either Ellen (248-563-4238) or Arlene (248-880-8156) with what type of dish for 10 that you will bring. The event will again be hosted by Fred and Diane Gerometta in their spacious yard and will open with cocktails at 5:30 PM followed by dinner at 7ish. It is a BYOB event, meaning that if you and yours want to drink something other than water, tea or coffee you must bring it. The Council will provide the entre – undetermined at this point.

In two weeks – July 31 – we will pray together at the 10:15 AM Mass. Wear your Council shirt or business attire with your Council badge. Come a few minutes early and sit in the front pews in the center section in front of the ambo (where the lector reads). For those brothers who usually attend that mass and insist on sitting in various other parts of the church, please join the crowd in the center section. It is important for us to set an example to other parishioners by sitting together.

PGK Bob Brown is in rehab for a few weeks after a bad fall. After therapy in the mornings, he has nothing to do except get bored, seeing his right arm in is in a sling and both hands have broken fingers which are bandaged. He is at Maple Manor on Novi Road (south of 14 Mile). and welcomes guests. Call first to his bedside phone (248-863-4755) to see if is available.

Tuesday is the third Tuesday of the month which means it time for our monthly membership meeting. See you there!
