RITE OF RECONCILIATION

Saturdays: 3:30–4:30 p.m.

The readings for the Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time focus on those lost on the journey of life, whether through one's individual choices or through circumstances beyond one's control. The good news of the Gospel is that God seeks those lost with a fervent desire to welcome them home.

The first reading from the Book of Exodus is an excerpt from Exodus 32, a chapter detailing Israel's apostasy (abandonment of the faith) in the desert. The Book of Exodus covers the birth and call of Moses, God's miraculous interventions to rescue Israel from hundreds of years of Egyptian slavery, and the early stages of Israel's forty years of desert wanderings. The story of the golden calf, part of which is heard in today's reading (see Ex 32:1-35 for the complete story), is arguably one of the lowest points in their desert journey toward the Promised Land. When Moses was delayed in coming down from the mountain where he received the Ten Commandments, some of the Israelites became impatient, concerned that Moses had either died or had deserted them. Out of fear and uncertainty, some of the Israelites, under Aaron's directives, fashioned a golden calf from their jewelry and began to worship it and sacrifice to it as their god. Today's reading picks up on God's reaction to this apostasy. God is characterized as filled with "wrath" with every intention to destroy those guilty of this grave sin. But Moses intervenes for his people before God, imploring God to remain faithful to the covenantal promises made to the patriarchs—Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. In what can be defined as one of Moses' greatest moments in the desert, he successfully appeals to God on behalf of those Israelites lost in their fear for the future and for those Israelites insufficiently grounded in their faith. For the people of Israel, an important lesson was learned that day: God listens to the prayers of petition for those lost and lacking in faith.

The Gospel reading is the entire chapter 15 of Luke. We hear today parables of the lost—the lost sheep, the lost coin, and the lost (prodigal) son. In numerous ways, these three parables continue one of Luke's favorite themes—the great reversal. In the parable of the lost sheep and the lost coin, Jesus declares there is more joy in heaven over one repentant sinner than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need for repentance. In the parable of the lost (prodigal) son, here too, the father rejoices over his lost and found son, arguably more so than over his ever faithful son. The great reversal is seen in God's unexpected and disproportionate reaction to finding things lost. At the heart of the reversal (which is really the human expectation of outcomes) lies God's unimaginable mercy and forgiveness. These parables challenge us to see those among us lost and lacking in faith from the perspective of the divine, eager to rescue them from being adrift.

Over the next three Sundays, the second reading comes from the First Letter of Timothy. Both 1 and 2 Timothy and Titus are commonly referred to as the Pastoral Letters. Nearly all scholars are convinced these Pauline letters were composed around AD 100 by the next generation of Pauline leaders. They faithfully adapted Paul's theology and ethics to their current circumstances. In today's reading, we hear the author of 1 Timothy speak of God's mercy shown to Paul. Considered as the "foremost" of sinners in his early persecution of the church, who "acted out of ignorance in my unbelief," God even treated Paul (lost in zeal) with divine mercy.

Prayer to Remember 9/11

Heavenly Father,
on this day, a terrible act of brutality
was visited upon our people.
We ask for your grace upon
the souls of those who died this day,
and the loved ones they left behind.
Bless those who, today, work unceasingly
to protect us all from further acts of violence.
Change the hearts and minds of those who would murder the innocent in your name.
Help us to remember Christ's victory over all death.
Lead us all to you, Lord, in a true unity,
begotten not of blood that was shed in anger,
but shed by your Son, out of love for us.
Amen.

Please consider joining the Evangelization Team in the mission of Christ. Together we identify the needs of our community and provide opportunities to enrich the journey with faithful purpose.

Our planning meeting is on Monday, September 12. Please meet in Room 2 at 7:00 PM.

Let us welcome

who joined St. Gerald Parish this past week.
Welcome to our parish!

TIM’S TIDBITS

In today’s Gospel, we hear Luke’s account which recounts three of the most familiar parables of Jesus. The lost sheep, the lost coin, and the Prodigal Son attest to the mercy of God. And we hear this in the Year of Mercy that our Holy Father, Pope Francis has proclaimed. Each story notes the joy of the shepherd, the woman and the father when the sheep, the coin, and the son have been found. The compassion of God is personified in the actions of the shepherd, the woman, and the father who seek out the lost. Let us take the words of the Gospel to heart and live it out in our daily life. Be merciful to others as God is merciful to us.

Today is September 11th, a day in which we remember the tragic events of 2001. I’m sure all of us can recall where we were when we heard of what occurred. For myself, I had just left a meeting at St. Damian’s in Westland when I received a phone call from a friend who told me what was happening. I immediately called my parents, who were still living at the time. I remember asking my mother to find out about our cousins. I had cousins that worked in New York City at that time, and they were safe. Let us always keep in prayer our first responders, fire fighters, police officers and EMTs that serve in our local community and beyond. When you see them, give them a “thumbs up”. Some communities, in light of recent events, have even hosted Hug a Responder Day. They put their lives on the line for us daily.

We can always use your help! Communion Ministers, Lectors, Altar Servers and Sacristans are needed for the Weekend Masses. Training is provided. It is a rewarding ministry, just ask anyone that you see involved in the particular ministry. Call me or email me if interested at 248-477-7470 x 202 or timwestfall.sgp@gmail.com.

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) will begin in September. If you are seeking to become a member of the Catholic Church or have questions, plan on attending when we begin sessions in late September. Are you interested in learning more about the Catholic Church, please contact me.

KNIGHTS CORNER

Holy Family Icon Here Sept. 21, Bring Your Family to Sept. 22 Mass

Hope you and yours had a restful Labor Day. That holiday traditionally marks the end of summer. For our Council it marks an increase in activity, starting with the Parish Festival which should have wrapped up yesterday.

Other major activities this month are the arrival of the Holy Family icon, a program of the Supreme Council, and our traditional pancake breakfast for the parish. The icon will be here Sept. 21 for seven days and will include a 7 PM mass Sept. 22. Be sure to circle the date and plan to attend the mass with your family.

The Sept. 25 breakfast has a new feature this year; it will be a benefit honoring Msgr. Ed Baldwin who was a member of our Council and a weekend assistant here for several years. His family and friends are raising funds to name a room in a new Memory Care unit to serve those with dementia at St. Anne’s Mead, an assisted living facility in Southfield where he spent his last four years. Mgr. Baldwin loved St. Anne’s and it held a special place in his heart as both his sister, Mary Edna, and his cousin, Jean, received excellent care during their final days and years.

We will be serving pancakes and the trimmings as usual – after the 8:30 and 10:15 AM masses. Instead of the usual fixed priced admission, we will be asking for a free will donation. Net proceeds will be donated to the St. Anne’s project.

Deputy Grand Knight Dave Bednarski again will head up the Breakfast crew. He will be recruiting workers at the Sept. 20 membership meeting. If you can work a couple of hours that morning but won’t be at the meeting, give him a call at 734-982-8373 or send him an e-mail at dbednarski_99@yahoo.com

Keep your eye on your mail box in a couple of weeks; for a package from the State K of C Council. It will contain tickets for the 2017 state raffle. The major source of funds the State Council donates to more than 55 charities.
