EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The Enthusiastic Steward

Have you ever been at a concert and rushed the stage to get closer to your favorite act? Has your favorite sports team won a championship, and you just wanted to celebrate for hours? For those of us who are parents, have you ever gone to great lengths to get the perfect photo at a first Communion, graduation, or some other ceremony in which your child was involved?

When moments in our life are filled with enthusiasm, we can find ourselves overwhelmed and doing things we might not normally do. I bet Zacchaeus didn't have a regular habit of climbing trees. However, he climbed one so he could see Jesus more clearly. His enthusiasm led him up a tree, an action he probably would not normally do.

Following Jesus Christ is not easy in this world of ours. Trying to do it without feeling any enthusiasm makes it doubly difficult. Enthusiasm is something that can be grown, but we must be the ones who foster it. When we see the fruits of our stewardship, enthusiasm grows. When we spend time in prayer and in God's Word getting to know Jesus better, enthusiasm grows. When we work to make Jesus the most important person in our life, enthusiasm grows. If we find ourselves too often with our feet on the ground and growing in apathy, perhaps it is time to do what it takes to bring on that desire to climb a tree. — Tracy Earl Welliver©LPi

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Christ loves us first. So much of the Christian life is as simple as that. Today’s Gospel is a prime example! “Now a man there named Zacchaeus, who was a chief tax collector and also a wealthy man ... was seeking to see who Jesus was.” We may have gotten used to the story of Zacchaeus, this short, seemingly innocent man who climbs a sycamore tree in his desperate desire to see Jesus. But this colorful, children’s Bible illustration isn’t what the gathering crowd would have seen. They would have seen the white collar criminal. Tax collectors were notorious for extortion. They were collaborators with the oppressive Roman overlords, overcharging for taxes and skimming a cut off the top. And how does Jesus respond to this man?

“Come down quickly,” Jesus says, “for today I must stay at your house.” If you had been there, would you have believed it? No doubt there were other disciples in the city or, at the very least, kind, generous, and just people. “Good” people. But those aren’t the people Jesus chooses to share a meal with. Christ loves us first. He chooses Zacchaeus even before the man makes a public profession of his repentance.

“The Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost.” We may not be tax collectors and extortionists — I hope not! — but we all have elements of our lives that are lost. We have wounds from childhood, unresolved anxieties or attachments, daily fears. No matter how “put together” we are, we all have our lost moments. Some days, it may feel like we can’t see over the ways they crowd our inner life. Today’s Gospel invites us to do something a little strange. Don’t let your flaws, failures, or hang-ups prevent you from seeing Jesus. Take a deep breath. Go climb a tree, because Jesus is passing by. And he wants to stay in your heart today. ©LPi

31ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THE MARIAN PEACE CENTER OF DETROIT
PRESENTS Father Michael Dwyer

Diocesan priest from the London Diocese in Canada
Saturday, November 16, 2019 at St. Gerald Catholic Church.
Begins with registration at 8:30 and ends at 1:30 PM
Registration: $12.00

After numerous requests, we invited Fr. Dwyer to return to the Detroit area again for a talk and healing service. Born with multiple handicaps, it was considered a miracle that he was even ordained a priest. Back in 1987, Father was returning to church for Benediction when his small car exploded after being hit by a van. Father had an experience of God and Our Lady that he will never forget. For 27 years, he hadn’t been close to Our Lady, but during a pilgrimage to Medjugorje, she led him to a closer relationship with Jesus. Father is always ready to share his near-death experience and the impact it had on him as a priest. He was given a choice back then, but when Mary said to him, “Father Michael, I love you,” he said yes to “coming back” to share God’s love with everyone.

To register or for more information, please see flyer on the table in the entrance of the church.

SECOND ANNUAL PARISH DAY OF RENEWAL

On Saturday, November 16, we are inviting all parish volunteers, parishioners, and lay ecclesial ministers to be part of the movement of Unleash the Gospel. The day will include keynote addresses from Sister Miriam James, SOLT and 4 tracks of breakout sessions. These sessions will equip parishioners to live out Unleash the Gospel in their family and in their parish. Each breakout track includes three sessions led by an expert in the field. Attendees will leave with not only knowledge in this area but ready-to-use tools to incorporate UTG into their parish or family. Each participant must register for one track, which includes three sessions. Visit pdr2019.eventbrite.com for more information and to register.

St. Catherine of Siena Academy, located in Wixom, is hosting their 8th Annual Benefit Gala, A Night In Siena, on Saturday, November 9th, 2019! This is an amazing event, with a silent and live auction, delicious dinner, and live entertainment. Proceeds from the event go towards supporting their tuition assistance fund. Tickets can be purchased at sca.cbo.io. If you have any questions, please contact Grace Henning at gghenning@saintcatherineacademy.org.

KNIGHTS CORNER

Officers to Review Action Calendar for 2020 Also Will Look to Recruit More KP Helpers

Your Officers will be thinking ahead when they gather Tuesday for their regular monthly meeting. They will be reviewing a draft of a proposed Action Calendar for the year 2020. Drafted by Program Director Tom McPhail, the Calendar lists most of the events in which the Council will be involved in the coming year. However, additions and deletions are the rule. Depending on the extent of changes made by the Officers, approval by the membership will be sought in November or December.

Also, to be considered Tuesday is how we can convince a few of our younger members to help with more of the kitchen duties, namely the setup and cleanup of first the meeting chow program and a few other events. One scheme would be draw names out of a hat to determine who would get KP duty each month. In a group that emphasizes participation, one can't be a guest all the time.

Many thanks to the Knights and spouses who served chili and hot dogs to a soggy Trunk 'n' Treat crowd last Saturday evening. A steady downpour reduced the number of trunkers who moved inside. The rain also meant fewer youngsters. Supplying chili were PGK Jim Malloy, PGK Fred Gerometta, Pat McDonald, Bill Croitori, Len Lemanski, Armin Rossenberger, Jerry Weigold, Rich Rosowski and Tom McPhail. Norma Battel, who leads the parish Worship Ministry, also provided a crockpot of chili. Also a big thank you for their assistance to spouses Diane Gerometta, Joanne Wojnar, Candy Rosowski, Rosa Rossenberger and Arlene McPhail.

A new supply of Council dress shirts plus some polo style are in. If you are thinking of freshening your Council attire, see PGK Bruce Roberts at the Nov. 19 meeting. The Council does not mark up our wearables; they are sold at cost.

Change a Phone Number or E-mail Address Lately?
Update Fin. Sec. Bob Kuhr So You Can Keep in Touch!
