RCIA EXPLAINED

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process by which people who have not been baptized or confirmed are incorporated into Christ and are formed into God's people, the church. Our relationship with God and with the Church are strengthened and deepened. Those involved in the RCIA become full members of the Catholic Church.

The RCIA process nurtures that relationship through prayer, scripture study, discussion and catechesis.

The rite includes the celebration of the sacraments of baptism, confirmation and the Eucharist and all the rites belonging to the catechumenate.

The catechumenate is the time of the nurturing and growth of the person's faith and conversion to God. It includes celebrations of the word, prayers and blessings to assist the process.

The rite also includes a period of purification and enlightenment, usually coinciding with Lent, with time for reflection intensely centered on conversion and marked by the celebration of the scrutinies and presentations. The sacraments of baptism, confirmation and the Eucharist usually take place at the Easter Vigil, the high point of the Liturgical Year.

Initiation is followed by a period of mystagogy during which the newly initiated experience being fully a part of the Christian community by means of catechesis and by participation in the Sunday Eucharist.

The RCIA also includes rites for baptized but uncatechized adults, for Christians from other Christian communities who wish to come into full communion with the Catholic Church and for children of catechetical age.

Baptized Catholics who have not received First Eucharist, First Reconciliation and/or the Sacrament of Confirmation are also welcomed to participate on this journey of faith in the RCIA.

The liturgical calendar determines when the rites are celebrated: The Rite of Welcome and Acceptance is celebrated when the participants and the leaders determine that they have reached a sense of a relationship with God, have made a commitment to continue to learn about the Church, prayer, worship and scripture. The Rite of Welcome and Acceptance occurs whenever it is determined to be beneficial.

At this time the period of catechumenate is begun – a time of deeper immersion into the life of the Church. Participants meet twice weekly – once during the week to learn more about the Church and once during a Sunday Mass to reflect on the Scripture readings.

The Rite of Election takes place on the first Sunday of Lent at the home church of the Archdiocese of Detroit, Blessed Sacrament Cathedral, in the presence of the Archbishop or one of the auxiliary bishops. This marks the beginning of a turning to more prayer and reflection as the participants prepare to receive the Sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist and/or Confirmation.

At the Easter Vigil Mass, on the night before Easter, participants are initiated into the Catholic Church as full members during Mass by receiving the Sacraments of Baptism, First Eucharist and Confirmation.

For 7 weeks following Easter, participants meet once a week to reflect on what it means to be a Catholic, culminating on Pentecost Sunday.

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is intensive and challenging, but rewarding. Guidance is provided by the leaders and sponsors and the community members through conversation, worship and prayer. We continue to pray for Travis Hammon and Samuel Gaylord.

LOST AND FOUND

Is there an item that you haven't been able to find in a while and are not sure where to look? Well, there may be a chance that you left it at church and it is now located in our "Lost and Found".

Please take a minute and look in our "Lost and Found" drawer located in the cabinet in the gathering space of the church. Unclaimed items will be donated to St. Vincent de Paul.

COLD AND FLU SEASON ADVICE

If you have the flu or flu like symptoms or a severe cold, please stay home until you feel better. Remember it is not a sin to miss Mass because you are ill.

If someone is sick with a cold sitting by you in Mass, it is okay to refrain from shaking hands at the beginning of Mass or at the Sign of Peace as well as holding hands during the Lord's Prayer. Perhaps a bow of the head and greeting of "Peace be with you" could be shared with those around you instead.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Drop Your Nets and Be Free

There are times I wish I had no obligations. It would be great to take my wife's hand, hop in the car, and drive into the sunset. Where we were going would not matter as much as the fact that we would have nowhere we had to be. There would be nothing we had to do. No bills. No commitments. No problems. Freedom!

Life doesn't work like that, however. When Jesus came along and asked some fishermen to drop their nets and follow him, they did just that. Wow! In some ways, they experienced true freedom. That is what Jesus offers all of us. Yet, true freedom looks quite different than my dream scenario.

In living in the true freedom that Jesus offers, there are things we must do and places we must go. That is because freedom only exists in following God's will, not our own. We are called to be and called to give ourselves completely to God without reservations. We always have the free will to not respond to His call, but we will find that a negative answer may complicate our lives even further. God's path for us calls on us to give freely of what we have been given. Saying no to that call means we carry the weight of those gifts. We were never meant to keep them. The path of God's will may seem long and winding, but it is the one that leads us into that sunset. It is the way to true freedom.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

It begins! Jesus is doing something new. "He left Nazareth and went to live in Capernaum by the sea." Jesus leaves his family, his profession of carpentry, and everything he has known and loved for the previous 30 years. He goes because it is time. Something new is beginning, and Jesus will not begin it alone. "As he was walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers ... he walked along from there and saw two other brothers." What does he say to these men? "Come after me." These words are for Peter and Andrew, for James and for John. They are also for all of us.

"Come after me." The adventure of discipleship will be strange, wild, and unexpected. The Apostles surely didn't know what they were getting into. But the invitation is accompanied by a promise. "I will make you fishers of men," Jesus tells the first Apostles. No more will their priorities be limited to this particular village, to the square miles of the Sea of Galilee. Their eyes will be open to the kingdom of God, and their priorities will shift.

Most of us will not be called to roam the countryside, but we are invited to a similar shift of priorities. "Come after me," Jesus says. "At once they left their nets and followed him." Drop the nets of what you've demanded your life to be. Drop your self-seeking priorities. Drop your concept of religion as a Sunday obligation and no more. Drop your disregard for those outside your immediate social sphere. Whatever it is that keeps you from seeing as Jesus sees, from loving as he loves, start to drop it today. Because the kingdom of God is waiting for your yes!

NATIONAL CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

National Catholic Schools Week 2020 begins this Sunday, January 26. The theme of this annual celebration of Catholic education in the United States is "Catholic Schools: Learn. Serve. Lead. Succeed." The Archdiocese of Detroit's Catholic schools are committed to their mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ. Gifts to the Catholic Services Appeal help ensure they are proudly Catholic, academically excellent, accessible to all, and sustainable for the future. The archdiocesan Department of Catholic Schools offers resources for teachers and principals, parents and students, and alumni. To learn more about Catholic schools in the Archdiocese, or to find a Catholic school, visit the department's new website at detroitcatholicschools.org. For more information about CSA-funded ministries, programs, and services, please go to aod.org.

We have placed a comment/suggestion box on the table at the main entrance of the church for parishioners to share their thoughts about our parish. These comment sheets will be read by the Pastor and then, if needed, forwarded to the appropriate Area Representative for action. It is important that you put your contact information on these sheets so that we can respond to your comment or suggestions. We truly value your input!

Knights Corner

You Are Urged to Learn How New Recruiting Tool Works Via a Webinar This Week

Three of your officers attended the Diocesan winter meetings earlier this month and heard how a new recruiting program developed by the Supreme or national Council is paying dividends. Grand Knight Dave Bednarski, Membership Director Rich Smith and Program Director Tom McPhail attend the session along with approximately 250 officers from other Detroit area councils. DGK Frank Gariepy was prevented from attending because was needed to solve a problem at his job.

The recruiting program is called a Delta Drive and has been around for a few months. State Deputy William Chasse cited its success in discussing the State Council’s membership gains. Supreme Regional Training Director Jon Olson will be conducting five webinars this week on how a drive is done. Since you all should consider yourself as a recruiter, you are urged to attend to hone your skills.

The webinars are scheduled for 1 PM Sunday, January 26; 5 PM, Monday, January 27; 5 PM, Tuesday, January 27 and 7 PM, Thursday, January 30. To reserve your spot, send an email to Jon at jon.olson@kofc.org listing your name, council and number and state and which webinar you will take part in.

An important milestone was marked Jan. 15 when the 60th Ultra Sound machine underwritten by State of Michigan Knights was dedicated at Arbor Women (Emmans Health) in Ann Arbor. The sponsoring Council was St. Louis Guanella #3092 based in Chelsea. Assisting were men from the Irish Hills Council #6223 in Brooklyn and from St. Andrew Council #6674 in Saline.

If any of our members are contemplating becoming a Fourth Degree Knight, the family of our recently departed brother Bob Puroil has a gift for you. Bob was a Fourth Degree in his former Council in Cullman, Alabama, before he returned to Michigan and joined our Council. He left behind a sword and scabbard and a fairly new tuxedo, size 42, that his family wishes to give to another Knight. If you are interested, PD Tom McPhail (248-875-1185) who will put you in contact with Bob’s family.

Sales of the Michigan Council Charity Raffle tickets are underway with the top prize a wonderful European Vikings river cruise, a very attractive draw. Don’t forget to put our Council number -- #13673 – and your name as seller on every stub. You may get a prize for selling a winner and the Council gets $1 for each ticket sold. If you run out of tickets, see PGK Bruce Roberts who is the Council point man on this project.
