Perhaps a bow of the head and greeting of "Peace be with you" could be shared with those around you instead.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS - PRESENTATION OF THE LORD

The Scripture readings today speak of God's promise to send a Savior to mankind. The prophet Malachi compares God's messenger to refined precious metals. In the Letter to the Hebrews, the author explains how Jesus came to help not angels, but the descendants of Abraham. In the long form of St. Luke's Gospel, the evangelist tells the story of Mary and Joseph taking the baby Jesus to the Temple. In accordance with the law, He is consecrated to the Lord. Simeon, a holy man, and Anna, a prophetess, are in the presence of the infant Jesus and witness the fulfillment of the ancient prophecies. As Paschal stewards, we strive to build a personal relationship with Christ and, in turn, be docile to His will. May this feast day move us, through the power of the Holy Spirit, to embrace Christ and, in a spirit of evangelization, do His work in our acts of stewardship with our parish communion. To discern your gifts, take the St. Austin Spiritual Gifts Inventory at www.staustin.org/spiritual-gifts-inventory.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

"Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in the sight of all the peoples: a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel." Very often, having more light is not something we desire as it forces us to confront something we really do not want to see. There can be comfort found in darkness. It has an eerie sense of security to it. We do not have to challenge ourselves or be challenged and can simply exist in some fabricated state of self-fabricated blissfulness. Jesus came to bring light, and it is a light that is resisted by many and hated by some. It is a light that causes us to see things as they really are and not as we would want or need them to be.

It is no wonder then that Simeon boldly and honestly proclaims to Mary, "Behold, this child is destined for the fall and rise of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be contradicted and you yourself a sword will pierce so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed." We have to take the Gospel message as it is and not just use those parts that are useful to us or more palatable. Taking Jesus at face value can and will lead to turmoil and dissension. Hearts will be pierced. Whether we like it, Jesus' proclamation of what the world God created really ought to look like has real and absolute social implications.

It has a lot to say about how we treat our brothers and sisters: spiritually, personally, economically, and globally. It has everything to do with the poor, the immigrant, the scared, the unborn, the vulnerable, the sick, and the broken. The light opens us to a challenging, table-turning experience that may not be something we want to see but shows us where we need to be. ©LPI

Knights Corner

Thanks to Knights and Parishioners who Participated at Last Week's Pancake Breakfast

Hats off to the 20 Knights who answered new Pancake Boss Terry Grabinski's call for workers for last Sunday's Pancake Breakfast. And a big "Thank You" to the parishioners who dined in slightly better numbers than at last September's breakfast.

The big winner was the neighboring Foster Closet of Michigan, Oakland Chapter, which will receive the net profits from the event once they are completely tabulated during the week. Foster Closet is located two blocks south of the Church at 20853 Farmington Road. It provides free clothing and some furniture to foster children who often arrive at their new homes with only the clothes of their back.

Helping produce last Sunday's breakfast were GK Dave Bednarski, Frank Gariepy, PGK Fred Gerometta, PGK Bruce Roberts, PGK Rich Smith, Rich Rosowski, Roger Stacey, Jerry Weigold and Pat McDonald. Also Brian Gulick, Greg Peters, Bill Croitori, Scott Horsburgh, Dennis Weberlein, Steve Conatser, Thom Seabolt, Ron Bywalec, Armin Russenberger, District Deputy Don Garon and Tom McPhail.

Hospitality Chair Ken May's meeting chow menu for 2020 was announced at the January 18 meeting. He is looking for two guest cooks to cover the May and November meetings. The January session also was a slot for a guest cook. It was deliciously handled by PGK Fred Gerometta who produced a well-received beef stew. His wife Diane complemented the stew with a couple of loaves of rustic bread, perfect for sopping up the stew sauce.

Here is the plan for meeting chow for the rest of the year: February, Taco/Fajita Night; March, Chili; April, Spaghetti; May, To Be Determined; June, Jambalaya Night; July, Lasagna; August, Hamburger and corn on the cob; September, Sausage, red beans and rice; October, Primo's pizza and salad, November, TBD, December, Pot Luck.

Financial Secretary Bob Kuhr will be sending out second notices for 2020 dues. As of the meeting, 28 of you will be getting those notices. If anyone is having financial difficulty with their dues, speak quietly with Bob or Grand Knight Dave Bednarski. You are more important to the Council than your dues.
