FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Reading I

Ezekiel 37:12-14

Thus says the Lord GOD: O my people, I will open your graves and have you rise from them, and bring you back to the land of Israel. Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when I open your graves and have you rise from them, O my people! I will put my spirit in you that you may live, and I will settle you upon your land; thus you shall know that I am the LORD. I have promised, and I will do it, says the LORD.

Responsorial Psalm

Reading II

Romans 8:8-11

Brothers and sisters: Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. But you are not in the flesh; on the contrary, you are in the spirit, if only the Spirit of God dwells in you. Whoever does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the spirit is alive because of righteousness. If the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, the one who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also, through his Spirit dwelling in you.

Gospel John 11:1-45

Now a man was ill, Lazarus from Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha. Mary was the one who had anointed the Lord with perfumed oil and dried his feet with her hair; it was her brother Lazarus who was ill. So the sisters sent word to him saying, "Master, the one you love is ill." When Jesus heard this he said, "This illness is not to end in death, but is for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified through it." Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. So when he heard that he was ill, he remained for two days in the place where he was. Then after this he said to his disciples, "Let us go back to Judea." The disciples said to him, "Rabbi, the Jews were just trying to stone you, and you want to go back there?" Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours in a day? If one walks during the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world. But if one walks at night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him." He said this, and then told them, "Our friend Lazarus is asleep, but I am going to awaken him." So the disciples said to him, "Master, if he is asleep, he will be saved." But Jesus was talking about his death, while they thought that he meant ordinary sleep. So then Jesus said to them clearly, "Lazarus has died. And I am glad for you that I was not there, that you may believe. Let us go to him." So Thomas, called Didymus, said to his fellow disciples, "Let us also go to die with him." When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days. Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, only about two miles away. And many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to comfort them about their brother. When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went to meet him; but Mary sat at home. Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that whatever you ask of God, God will give you." Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise." Martha said to him, "I know he will rise, in the resurrection on the last day." Jesus told her, "I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?" She said to him, "Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world." When she had said this, she went and called her sister Mary secretly, saying, "The teacher is here and is asking for you." As soon as she heard this, she rose quickly and went to him. For Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was still where Martha had met him. So when the Jews who were with her in the house comforting her saw Mary get up quickly and go out, they followed her, presuming that she was going to the tomb to weep there. When Mary came to where Jesus was and saw him, she fell at his feet and said to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping and the Jews who had come with her weeping, he became perturbed and deeply troubled, and said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Sir, come and see." And Jesus wept. So the Jews said, "See how he loved him." But some of them said, "Could not the one who opened the eyes of the blind man have done something so that this man would not have died?" So Jesus, perturbed again, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone lay across it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the dead man's sister, said to him, "Lord, by now there will be a stench; he has been dead for four days."

Gospel continued...

Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believe you will see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus raised his eyes and said, "Father, I thank you for hearing me. I know that you always hear me; but because of the crowd here I have said this, that they may believe that you sent me." And when he had said this, He cried out in a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, tied hand and foot with burial bands, and his face was wrapped in a cloth. So Jesus said to them, "Untie him and let him go." Now many of the Jews who had come to Mary and seen what he had done began to believe in him.

THE THIRD PILLAR OF LENT

PRAYER

Prayer is intended to inspire spiritual growth and renewal during these days of Lent. It's a time to deepen our relationship with God through sacrifice and repentance as we reflect on His love for us through our Savior Jesus Christ.

"But when you pray, go to your inner room, close the door and pray to your Father in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will repay you." Matthew 6:6

HERE ARE WAYS TO INCREASE OUR PRAYER LIFE:

- 1 Set aside time each day for prayer, such as personal prayer, daily Mass, the Rosary, or the Stations of the Cross, and let that daily commitment gently draw you deeper into your relationship with God.
- 2 Deepen your prayer by using Lectio Divina, a Lenten devotional, or a spiritual book of your choice. Great resources are available through Dynamic Catholic online.
- 3 Let your sacrifices—whether fasting from food, stepping back from certain habits, or giving your time, talent, or treasure—and let them become intentional moments of prayer.
- 4 Adoration: Come spend a few quiet moments with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament—rest in His presence, offer your prayers, and allow your heart to be renewed.

Again, we thank you and appreciate your support and love you have for St. Gerald.

2026 CATHOLIC SERVICES APPEAL

We also want to inform you that our 2026 CSA Campaign will launch on CSA Weekend May 4-5, 2026 and will end December 31, 2026. As you all know this is a yearly appeal to help fund valuable ministries, programs and services that benefit so many in our parish and across the Archdiocese of Detroit and beyond. When we support the CSA, together we unleash the Gospel.

Some Fridays Stations will be a visual presentation shown on our dropdown screens in the Church, the alternating weeks we will use the traditional little brown books.

This is a great opportunity to walk with Jesus on His final journey. To live each step with Him and realize what He did for all of us to make way our path to eternity as we live each day here on Earth. Come spend an hour each Friday during Lent and rejoice on Easter when He rose.

Jesus went with them to a place called Gethsemane, and he said to his disciples, "Sit here, while I go yonder and pray." ...And he came to the disciples and found them sleeping; and he said to Peter, "So, could you not watch with me one hour?"
— Matthew 26:36, 40

JOIN US HOLY THURSDAY * APRIL 2, 2026 IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING MASS AT 7:00

Holy Thursday marks the start of the Paschal Triduum, commemorating the Last Supper, the institution of the Eucharist and priesthood, and the washing of the feet. The evening Mass of the Lord's Supper features the priest washing parishioners' feet, followed by Eucharistic Adoration to commemorate the Agony in the Garden. The silence, the prayer, the quiet altar where the Blessed Sacrament is reposed —they all signify that evening in Gethsemane.

Our Lord struggles with the very human fear of His coming Passion, sweating blood in His distress. The Apostles—who were supposed to watch with Him and keep Him company are fast asleep. We can thank Him for redeeming us. We can console Him with our prayers. We can "watch with Him" in His darkest hour.

"Could you not watch one hour with me?"

That is all that Our Lord says to them —yet it is the question which resounds every moment in our souls.

Will we watch with Him?

EASTER FOOD BLESSING AND EASTER EGG HUNT

THE PASSION of JESUS CHRIST A special curated relic exhibit

MONDAY, MARCH 30th
7:00 PM

Holy Week is commonly regarded as the most liturgically sacred and special time within the Catholic Church and St. Michael's Adult Faith Formation Committee is pleased to be able to introduce our Holy Week observations with a special curated exhibition of rare relics from the All Saints Shrine at Livonia's Sacred Heart Byzantine Catholic Church and narrated by the Shrine's current Docent and Pastor Emeritus, Fr. Joseph Marquis.

The eight relics, all quite rare, represent many aspects of Christ's passion, crucifixion, burial and resurrection. They include:

- A fragment of the true cross
- A thorn from Christ's crown.
- A small fiber fragment from the Shroud of Turin
- A replica image of Christ's Emerging Face, based on most recent scientific study of the Shroud
- An accurate replica casting of one of the 3 nails
- The index finger of Joseph of Arimathea, which he inserted through Christ's mouth to turn his head to remove him from the cross.
- A piece of the Sudarium of Oviedo, the linen cloth used to cover Christ's face and found folded at a distance from the Shroud.
- The little finger of St. Thomas's right hand, with which he probed the wounds in Christ's side and hands.
