ALL SAINTS DAY

Reading 1 Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14

I, John, saw another angel come up from the East, holding the seal of the living God. He cried out in a loud voice to the four angels who were given power to damage the land and the sea, "Do not damage the land or the sea or the trees until we put the seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God." I heard the number of those who had been marked with the seal, one hundred and forty-four thousand marked from every tribe of the children of Israel. After this I had a vision of a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue. They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice: "Salvation comes from our God, who is seated on the throne, and from the Lamb." All the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures. They prostrated themselves before the throne, worshiped God, and exclaimed: "Amen. Blessing and glory, wisdom and thanksgiving, honor, power, and might be to our God forever and ever. Amen." Then one of the elders spoke up and said to me, "Who are these wearing white robes, and where did they come from?" I said to him, "My lord, you are the one who knows." He said to me, "These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress; they have washed their robes and made them white in the Blood of the Lamb."

Responsorial Psalm

Reading 2 1 John 3:1-3

Beloved: See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God. Yet so we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. Everyone who has this hope based on him makes himself pure, as he is pure.

Alleluia

Gospel Matthew 5:1-12a

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he had sat down, his disciples came to him. He began to teach them, saying: "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the land. Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied. Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy. Blessed are the clean of heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven."

BRING THEM TO CHURCH

To the mom walking the back hallway with a baby on her shoulder.
To the dad who heard maybe four sentences of the homily.
To the parents who kept whispering "not yet" and picked Cheerios out of the carpet.
To the single parent who got every child dressed, fed, and out the door alone.
To the grandparents who brought their grandchildren because someone should.
To the teenager who'd rather be asleep but came.
To the older saint who remembers when it was their child under the pew.
To the parent whose pew is quieter now than they ever wanted it to be
This is for you.

Parents, I know how this morning went. The Sunday shoe battle. The meltdown in the parking lot. The dropped songbook. The very loud "I'm DONE!" right in the middle of a prayer. You spent the whole hour apologizing with your eyes and wondering if you should just stay home next week.

PLEASE DON'T.

You didn't waste your morning. You think nobody noticed. They noticed. Little eyes watched you bow your head. Little ears heard you sing. Little hands learned that on the first day of the week, this family goes to worship. It may not feel like anything is sinking in. It is. Faith caught long before it's taught.

And to the family worried you're bothering everyone: you're not. The rows around you smiled. Some of us remember being you. Some of us have prayed for the day our pews would be this loud again. A quiet church isn't the goal. A church with no children is what should worry us. You're not a distraction. You are our hope. Every Sunday, something is being handed down in that room. It doesn't happen in the polished moments. It happens in the messy ones. A teenager hears on old man sing a hymn he's sung for sixty years. A worn-out young mom gets a wink from a woman who has been exactly where she is. A toddler under the pew is learning what his family loves most.

That is the church doing what God designed it to do.

Parents, come anyway. Come tired, even a few minutes late if you have to. Just come. Everyone near the noisy row, smile, help, and make room. And if you are praying for a child who has drifted, keep praying. God isn't finished. One day that wiggly little one will sit beside you on the pew, and then beside their own children.

Keep bringing them. We will save you a seat.

WYD SEOUL 2027

SOCK RELIGIOUS

Practicing young Catholics from the Archdiocese of Detroit, including one from St. Gerald, wishing to deepen their faith and grow closer to God, are traveling with Verso Ministries on a pilgrimage in Seoul, South Korea from August 1-10, 2027.

As we embark on this journey, we request your support. Though the fruits of this journey will be great, so are some of the costs. If you are so inclined, we'd appreciate your financial support. If you are not able to give at this time, we request your prayers and offer to bring your personal prayer requests with us. Please feel free to share those intentions with us. Should you be moved to support us on this pilgrimage with funds, please denote "World Youth Day" on your donation to St. Gerald Church, or participate in our fundraisers.

Pope Benedict, in an address given at the Cathedral of Santiago de Compostela in 2010, gave this summary of Catholic pilgrimage:
"To go on pilgrimage is not simply to visit a place to admire its treasures of nature, art or history. To go on pilgrimage really means to step out of ourselves in order to encounter God where he has revealed himself, where his grace has shone with particular splendor and produced rich fruits of conversion and holiness among those who believe."

We hope to step out ourselves to hear God's voice in our lives and see the paths laid out for us. Please pray for us.

Trunk or Treat

Our annual Trunk or Treat was October 25. We were once again blessed with beautiful weather and all enjoyed the hot dog lunch (thank you to the Knights of Columbus for cooking!), treating, and having fall fun!
